

FICHE DE TD 1/3 • FACILE

Anglais • 1re T

Economic Life and Occupations

Anglais – classe de Première technique

Cette fiche évalue les acquis grammaticaux et lexicaux de l'unité « Economic Life and Occupations » à travers des exercices d'application directe.

EXERCICE 1 Polite Requests et Partitives

Complétez les dialogues suivants en utilisant les formes de politesse appropriées (let me, could you, can you) ou les articles partitifs (a bunch of, a cup of, a kilo of, a loaf of).

1. Customer : _____ help me carry this bag, please?
Shop assistant : Certainly, madam.
2. Customer : I'd like to buy some bananas.
Seller : How about _____ bananas ? They are very ripe.
3. _____ pay for your groceries while you pack them.
4. Waiter : What would you like to drink ?
Client : I'll have _____ coffee, please.
5. Customer : _____ you tell me the price of _____ bread, please?

EXERCICE 2 Adjectifs comme noms et So / Neither

A. Réécrivez les phrases en remplaçant le groupe nominal souligné par un adjectif utilisé comme nom (ex : the poor, the rich, the unemployed).

1. Poor people need financial support. → _____
2. Injured people were taken to hospital. → _____

B. Complétez les réponses courtes par So ou Neither + auxiliaire + sujet.

3. A : I enjoy managing my budget. B : _____ (moi aussi).
4. A : My brother didn't save any money last year. B : _____ (moi non plus).
5. A : She is a skilled carpenter. B : _____ (lui aussi).
6. A : We cannot afford a new car. B : _____ (eux non plus).

EXERCICE 3 Quantificateurs : Partie 1 (some, any, much, all, most)

Choisissez le quantificateur correct entre parenthèses.

1. There isn't (some / any) milk left in the fridge.
2. (All / Most) of the students in the technical stream study economics.
3. Do you have (much / many) experience in plumbing?
4. Would you like (some / any) help with your business plan?
5. (All / Most) the money has been spent on raw materials.

EXERCICE 4 Quantificateurs : Parties 2 et 3 (few/a few, little/a little, each, every, both, none)

Complétez les phrases avec le quantificateur approprié.

1. Very _____ candidates passed the professional interview. (sentiment négatif : presque aucun)
2. I have _____ time before my shift starts ; let's have a coffee. (quantité petite mais suffisante)
3. _____ employee must wear a safety helmet on the construction site. (individuellement)
4. The two brothers are electricians ; _____ of them work for the same company.
5. I invited ten suppliers, but _____ of them replied to my email. (zéro sur le groupe)

EXERCICE 5 Vocabulaire : Finances personnelles et Métiers

Associez chaque définition (1-5) au mot ou expression correspondant (A-E).

1. Money kept in a bank for future use.
2. A person who repairs water pipes and heating systems.
3. The money you earn regularly for your work.
4. A document showing how much you must pay for goods bought.
5. To put money into a business to make a profit.

- | | |
|-------------------|-------------------|
| A. Salary / Wages | B. Invoice / Bill |
| C. Savings | D. Plumber |
| E. Invest | |

Écrivez la lettre correspondante : 1. ___ 2. ___ 3. ___ 4. ___ 5. ___

EXERCICE 6 Expression écrite guidée

Rédigez un paragraphe court (60–80 mots) sur le métier que vous aimeriez exercer plus tard. Utilisez au moins trois quantificateurs étudiés (some, many, each, both, few, etc.) et deux expressions de politesse (Could you, Let me, etc.). Structurez votre texte : présentation du métier → raisons du choix → étapes pour y parvenir.

1. Rédigez votre production sur la feuille de réponse.