

FICHE DE TD 1/3 • FACILE

Anglais • 1re T

Citizenship and Human Rights

Anglais – classe de Première technique

Cette fiche propose des exercices d'application directe sur le chapitre « Citizenship and Human Rights ». Répondez de manière claire et justifiée.

EXERCICE 1 Questions de cours

Répondez brièvement aux questions suivantes.

1. Give two examples of basic human rights.
2. What is a coordinating conjunction? Give two examples.
3. What is a subordinating conjunction? Give two examples.
4. Give one example of a phrasal verb and use it in a short sentence.
5. What does the expression « civic responsibility » mean?

EXERCICE 2 Vrai ou faux

Indiquez si les affirmations suivantes sont vraies (V) ou fausses (F), puis justifiez brièvement votre réponse.

1. « Although » is a coordinating conjunction.
2. « Each other » is used to express a reciprocal action between two people.
3. The adverb « never » expresses negation.
4. « Despite » is followed by a noun or a noun phrase, not by a full clause.
5. Tolerance means accepting differences between people.
6. « Hardly » has a positive meaning.

EXERCICE 3 QCM : grammaire

Choisissez la bonne réponse pour compléter chaque phrase.

1. ... he was tired, he continued to work.
(a) Because
(b) Although

- (c) So
2. She worked hard, ... she failed the exam.
- (a) yet
(b) because
(c) since
3. ... the rain, the workers continued the construction.
- (a) Although
(b) In spite of
(c) However
4. The two friends help ... with their homework.
- (a) each
(b) each other
(c) one
5. He has lived in Douala ... 2015.
- (a) for
(b) since
(c) yet

EXERCICE 4 Complétion : prépositions

Complétez les phrases avec la préposition qui convient : in, on, at, by, for, with.

1. The meeting starts ... 8 o'clock.
2. Citizens voted ... the polling station.
3. She goes to work ... bus every day.
4. The election took place ... October.
5. He spoke ... a loud voice during the debate.
6. They have been fighting for freedom ... many years.

EXERCICE 5 Vocabulaire : tableau

Complétez le tableau suivant en associant chaque mot à sa définition (écrivez la lettre correspondante).

Word	Definition
1. Democracy	a. Accepting opinions different from yours
2. Tolerance	b. A system where people choose their leaders
3. Excellence	c. The state of being free
4. Freedom	d. Doing something of very high quality
5. Vote	e. An official choice in an election

EXERCICE 6 Adverbes et verbes à particule

1. Rewrite the sentence using « hardly » : « He almost never speaks in public. »
2. Complete with the correct phrasal verb : look after, give up, carry on.
 - (a) We must ... promoting human rights in our community.
 - (b) Never ... your rights as a citizen.
 - (c) She ... her younger brother while her parents work.
3. Write one short sentence (5–8 words) about democracy using the adverb « never ».