

FICHE DE TD 1/3 • FACILE

Anglais • Tle T

Economic life and occupations

Anglais – classe de Terminale technique

Cette fiche d'exercices porte sur le vocabulaire de la vie économique, les comparaisons, les adverbes temporels, les phrases complexes et l'expression de préférences.

EXERCICE 1 Vocabulaire : Services bancaires et besoins du consommateur

Complétez les phrases suivantes avec les mots appropriés de la liste : withdrawal, deposit, interest rate, loan, budget, consumer, receipt, savings.

1. Before taking a _____ from the bank, compare the _____ offered by different agencies.
2. A wise _____ always asks for a _____ after a purchase.
3. She made a large _____ into her _____ account yesterday.
4. Planning a monthly _____ helps to manage expenses and increase _____.

EXERCICE 2 Grammaire : Formes de comparaison

Réécrivez les phrases en utilisant la structure de comparaison indiquée entre parenthèses sans changer le sens.

1. This smartphone is cheaper than that one. (not as ... as)
2. The service here is better than in the other branch. (inferior to)
3. The price of fuel doubles every five years. (twice as ... as)
4. My salary is equal to yours. (the same ... as)
5. The more you save, the richer you become. (double comparative)

EXERCICE 3 Grammaire : Adverbes de temps (for, since, ago, after, afterwards)

Choisissez l'adverbe ou la préposition correcte pour compléter chaque phrase.

1. I have known my bank manager _____ (since / for) 2015.
2. They waited _____ (during / for) two hours before the counter opened.
3. He paid back the loan three years _____ (ago / before).
4. _____ (After / Afterwards) signing the contract, she received the keys.

5. We had lunch ; _____ (after / afterwards), we went to the post office.

EXERCICE 4 Grammaire : Coordination et subordination

Reliez les deux phrases simples en une phrase complexe en utilisant le mot de liaison donné.

1. The interest rate is high. Many people still borrow money. (although)
2. He lost his credit card. He reported it immediately. (as soon as)
3. The bank was closed. We could not deposit the cheque. (because)
4. She compares prices. She wants to find the best buy. (so that)
5. The service is fast. The service is reliable. (not only ... but also)

EXERCICE 5 Grammaire : Expression des préférences

Complétez les dialogues en utilisant la structure de préférence appropriée (would rather, would prefer, prefer ... to, had better).

1. A : _____ you _____ a current account or a savings account ? B : I _____ a savings account _____ a current account.
2. A : Shall we go to the bank now ? B : I _____ go tomorrow morning.
3. You _____ check the exchange rate before changing money.
4. I _____ paying by card rather than cash.

EXERCICE 6 Expression écrite : Services bancaires

Vous souhaitez ouvrir un compte bancaire. Rédigez un court courriel formel (80-100 mots) à votre conseiller bancaire dans lequel vous :

- Demandez les documents nécessaires.
- Comparez deux types de comptes (courant vs épargne).
- Exprimez votre préférence et justifiez votre choix.